

under Antidumping Proceeding at: Office of Antidumping Compliance, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street & Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20230, telephone (202) 482-4737.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Department of Commerce (the Department) may revoke an antidumping duty order or finding or terminate a suspended investigation, pursuant to 19 C.F.R. § 353.25(d)(4)(iii), if no interested party has requested an administrative review for four consecutive annual anniversary months and no domestic interested party objects to the revocation or requests an administrative review.

The anniversary month for the Certain Circular Welded Carbon Steel Pipe and Tube (P & T) from Taiwan antidumping duty order is May. With regard to P & T from Taiwan, the Department published its notice of intent to revoke the order on May 3, 1994. However, due to a ministerial oversight, the Department failed to notify the domestic interested parties of its action. On June 20, 1994, the Department sent a letter to the domestic interested parties notifying them of our previous action and informing them that any objections to the Department's intent to revoke the order on P & T from Taiwan must be made within 30 days. Domestic interested parties filed an objection on July 11, 1994.

On September 19, 1994, Kao Hsing Chang Iron & Steel Corporation (KHC), a respondent, requested that the Department revoke the order because no interested party had objected by the last day of May 1994. KHC, citing the Court of International Trade's (CIT) ruling in Kemira Fibres Oy v. United States, 861 F. Supp. 144 (Ct. Int'l Trade 1994), argued that the objection of July 11, 1994, "was invalid because the objection ensued in response to an invitation erroneously extended as the time to issue the notice had expired and Commerce was obligated to revoke the order." The CIT held that, pursuant to 19 C.F.R. § 353.25(d)(4)(iii), if no interested party objects to the Department's notice of intent to revoke by the last day of the fifth anniversary month of the order, then the Department must revoke the order, regardless of the time limit for objections specified by the Department in its notice of intent to revoke.

On August 2, 1995, the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (CAFC) overturned the CIT's ruling in Kemira Fibres Oy v. United States, Slip Op. 95-1077 (Fed. Cir. Aug. 2, 1995). Among other things, the CAFC held that notice is of paramount importance in the "sunset" process:

* * * there may be cases when administrative review is not warranted because interested parties are satisfied with an existing order. . . . In such a case, the domestic industry may have no incentive to request administrative review of the order. Thus, the absence of a request for administrative review, while it may indicate lack of interest, can also indicate satisfaction with the status quo. Consequently, Commerce may not reasonably conclude that there is a lack of interest in an outstanding order merely by the absence of a request for review, rather, only after publishing notice of proposed revocation may Commerce properly conclude that the order at issue is no longer of interest so as to be revocable.

It is clear that notification of domestic parties so that their interest in revocation of an outstanding order may be ascertained and addressed is an overriding consideration in the regulatory framework and the legislative history of the antidumping statute. Given this, we conclude that Commerce's interpretation was a reasonable one. See Chevron, 467 U.S. at 844. Revocation must be predicated on a lack of industry interest and such interest must be ascertained through notification of an intent to revoke. The timing requirements of section 353.25(d)(4)(i)-(ii) are merely procedural aids in accomplishing this prerequisite to revocation. They are subordinate to the overriding requirement of notice. A contrary interpretation would defeat the clear intent of Congress.

Within the time frame specified in our notice to interested parties of June 20, 1994, we received objections from the "domestic interested parties" to our intent to revoke this antidumping duty order. Therefore, in accordance with the CAFC's decision, because the "domestic interested parties" timely objected to our intent to revoke, we no longer intend to revoke this antidumping duty order. Furthermore, in light of the CAFC's decision, the alternative arguments raised by the parties are moot.

Determination Not to Revoke Antidumping Duty Orders and Findings Nor to Terminate Suspended Investigations

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Determination Not to Revoke Antidumping Duty Orders and Findings Nor to Terminate Suspended Investigations.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce is notifying the public of its determination not to revoke the antidumping duty orders and findings nor to terminate the suspended investigations listed below.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 18, 1995.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Michael Panfeld or the analyst listed under Antidumping Proceeding at: Office of Antidumping Compliance, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street & Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20230, telephone (202) 482-4737.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Department of Commerce (the Department) may revoke an antidumping duty order or finding or terminate a suspended investigation, pursuant to 19 CFR § 353.25(d)(4)(iii), if no interested party has requested an administrative review for four consecutive annual anniversary months and no domestic interested party objects to the revocation or requests an administrative review.

We had not received a request to conduct an administrative review for the most recent four consecutive annual anniversary months. Therefore, pursuant to § 353.25(d)(4)(i) of the Department's regulations, on April 28, 1995, we published in the Federal Register a notice of intent to revoke these antidumping duty orders and findings and to terminate the suspended investigations and served written notice of the intent to each domestic interested party on the Department's service list in each case. Within the specified time frame, we received objections from domestic interested parties to our intent to revoke these antidumping duty orders and findings and to terminate the suspended investigations. Therefore, because domestic interested parties objected to our intent to revoke or terminate, we no longer intend to revoke these antidumping duty orders and findings or to terminate the suspended investigations.
